

International Labour
Organization

COMBAT CHILD LABOUR!

World Day
Against CHILD LABOUR

12 JUIN 2014

ACTIVITIES
around the world

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Argentina	The Asociación Civil de Azoteca, a local NGO, will implement a campaign to celebrate World Day. Short interviews with experts on social protection and child labour will be broadcast on radio stations throughout the country. <hr/> La Asociación Civil de Azoteca, una ONG local, pondrá en práctica una campaña para celebrar el Día mundial de 2014 que difundirá en las estaciones de radio del país. La emisión de radio incluirá entrevistas cortas de expertos sobre la protección social y el trabajo infantil.	Gustavo Ponce ponce@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org
Belgium Brussels (EU) / Benelux	ILO Brussels will participate in the European Youth Event 2014 in Strasbourg, jointly organized by the European Parliament and the European Youth Forum, to promote the Red Card to Child Labour campaign and encourage youth to join the Red Card Thunderclap. The Thunderclap will be promoted through social media channels and Benelux, EU youth media and special interest media. In addition, Benelux/EU ambassadors/partners will be mobilized for the campaign including football clubs and associations, artists, singers, actors, Prime Ministers/Ministers, European Commission and Parliament (MEPs and President).	ILO Brussels brussels@ilo.org	Rosalind Yarde yard@ilo.org
Benin	Benin will celebrate World Day with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a TV debate on the role of social protection in the fight against child labour and on the implementation of ILO Recommendation No. 202 by Benin; • a radio magazine programme on the role of social protection in the fight against child labour; 	François Gautho gautfranc@yahoo.fr	Alexandre Soho soho@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a sketch by SOS Children's Village (ECOWAS II) against child labour; • a newspaper article on the role of social protection in the fight against child labour; • a caravan/procession on 12 June and 16 June (Day of the African Child). <hr/> Bénin fêtera la Journée mondiale en organisant diverses activités: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • un débat télévisé sur le rôle de la protection sociale dans la lutte contre le travail des enfants et la mise en œuvre de la Recommandation n° 202 par le Bénin; • un magazine à la radio de diffusion sur le rôle de la protection sociale dans la lutte contre le travail des enfants; • un sketch (ECOWAS II) SOS Village des enfants contre le travail des enfants; • un article qui sera publié dans un journal d'audience générale sur le rôle de la protection sociale dans la lutte contre le travail des enfants; • caravane / procession le 12 juin et 16 juin (Journée de l'enfant africain).
Bolivia	In collaboration with the Ministry of Labour, Employment and Social Security and partner institutions, the following activities will be held throughout the month of June in Bolivia. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A press conference to raise awareness about social protection. It will be held in the Ministry of Labour, with local authorities. • IPEC joins in the launch of a radio drama "Tripitas" which chronicles the life of a child labourer and the impact of child labour. 	Ana Rouzena Zuazo zuazo@ilo.org	Lars Johannsen Johannsen@ilo.org Patrick Quin quinn@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Public awareness raising shows will take place simultaneously in the capitals of departments and regions with the highest incidence of child labour: Riberalta, Potosi, Santa Cruz and Bermejo. • An investigative reporting contest on hazardous child labour, forced and child labour, for journalists and media nationwide. • Presentations in three discussion forums on the paper “Estudio sobre trabajo doméstico de niños, niñas y adolescentes en 5 municipios de Bolivia”, carried out thanks to the partnership between Universidad Mayor de San Andrés, Federación de Trabajadoras del Hogar, Ministry of Labour, UNICEF and IPEC. • Printing of banners, calendars and newsletters for awareness raising and mass communication. • Participation in audiovisual and print media at local and national levels to spread the message about the importance of social protection in the progressive elimination of child labour in Bolivia. <hr/> En Bolivia, en coordinación con el Ministerio de Trabajo, Empleo y Previsión Social y las instituciones aliadas, se realizarán las siguientes actividades durante todo el mes de Junio. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Una conferencia de prensa para sensibilizar sobre la protección social, que tendrá lugar en el Ministerio de Trabajo, con autoridades. • El IPEC, se suma al lanzamiento de una radionovela “Tripitas”, que relata la vida de un niño trabajador y el impacto del trabajo infantil. • Ferias públicas de sensibilización que se realizarán simultáneamente en

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	las capitales de departamentos y regiones donde hay mayor incidencia de trabajo infantil: Riberalta, Potosí, Santa Cruz y Bermejo. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Concurso de investigación periodística sobre trabajo infantil peligroso, forzado y explotación infantil, dirigido a periodistas y comunicadores a nivel nacional. • Presentación en tres foros reflexivos, del “Estudio sobre trabajo doméstico de niños, niñas y adolescentes en 5 municipios de Bolivia”, realizado mediante alianza entre la Universidad Mayor, de San Andrés, Federación de Trabajadoras del Hogar, Ministerio de Trabajo, UNICEF y el IPEC. • Impresión de banners, calendarios y boletines para sensibilización y distribución masiva • Participación en medios de comunicación audiovisuales y escritos a nivel local y nacional, para difundir el mensaje sobre la importancia de la protección social en la eliminación progresiva del trabajo infantil en Bolivia.
Brazil	ILO Brazil will organize activities in 6 regions to celebrate World Day on 12 June. Rio de Janeiro: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Launch of the 2014 edition of the Red Card to Child Labour campaign, in partnership with the Brazilian Government and the National Forum for the Prevention and Elimination of Child Labour (FNPETI) with an aerial image of participants forming a human pinwheel on Botafogo Beach. Campaign materials will be distributed. 	Maria Claudia Falcão falcao@ilo.org	Pedro Américo Oliveira oliveirap@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	Rondonia: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Parque dos Tanques, in Porto Velho: distribution of campaign and information material on the benefits of engaging children at risk of child labour in sports activity. Bahia: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Distribution of campaign material at the International Airport and the Interstate Bus Station in Salvador. Pernambuco: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Flashmob – “Children don’t work” with children and teachers in Recife’s “Marco Zero”. Campaign material will be distributed. Awareness-raising performance in Derby Square in Recife. Campaign material will be distributed. Acre: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Public hearing on child labour in the auditorium of the Rio Branco city hall. Rio Grande do Sul: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Public hearings and seminars about child labour in various municipalities. Awareness-raising actions and distribution of campaign material at Parque da Redenção and the International Airport in Porto Alegre.

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Burkina Faso	To commemorate World Day, the Ministry of Public Service, Labour and Social Security, together with IPEC, will organize a tripartite panel with the social partners as well as with other prominent speakers, to take stock of the advances made in the eradication of child labour in Burkina Faso and to reinforce political commitment for future action. The Ministry and ILO-IPEC will also organize several cultural activities in the major cities to mark World Day. These activities will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a street procession; • a drawing and poetry competition on child labour for local children; • a play on child labour during the official ceremony; • Activities will be covered by local media in the major cities of Burkina Faso. <hr/> Pour commémorer la Journée mondiale contre le travail des enfants, 12 juin 2014, le ministère de la Fonction publique, du Travail et de la Sécurité sociale avec le BIT-IPEC organisera un panel tripartite avec les partenaires sociaux ainsi que d'autres éminents conférenciers, de faire le bilan des progrès réalisés dans l'éradication du travail des enfants au Burkina Faso et à renforcer leurs engagements politiques pour l'action future. Le ministère et le BIT-IPEC organiseront également plusieurs activités culturelles dans les grandes villes pour la célébration JMCTE. Ces activités comprendront: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organisation d'une procession à travers les rues de la localité 	Romain Kobanka kobanka@ilo.org	Vera Perdigao-Paquete perdigao@ilo.org Laurence Dubois dubois@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	commémorant la Journée mondiale; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • organisation d'un concours de dessin et de poésie sur le travail des enfants pour les enfants de la région; • organisation d'un jeu sur le travail des enfants qui sera présenté lors de la cérémonie officielle; En outre, la couverture de la campagne sera diffusée dans les médias locaux dans les grandes villes du Burkina Faso.
Costa Rica	A multi-stakeholder forum will be held on 6 June "Economic Vulnerability, Social Protection and Combating child labour: Progress and Challenges in Costa Rica." The Technical University (TEC) and the Ministry of Labour will hold another Forum on 10 June in Cartago province. This will highlight the experiences in Cartago on the prevention and eradication of child labour. Dance, theatre and other cultural performances on child labour will take place. <hr/> Un foro de múltiples interesados se llevará a cabo el 6 de junio "Vulnerabilidad Económica, la Protección Social y la Lucha contra el Trabajo Infantil: Avances y Desafíos en Costa Rica." La Universidad Técnica (TEC) y el Ministerio de Trabajo llevará a cabo otro foro el 10 de junio en la provincia de Cartago. Esto pondrá de relieve las experiencias en Cartago en la prevención y erradicación del trabajo infantil. Danza, teatro y otros espectáculos culturales sobre el trabajo infantil se llevarán a cabo.	Noortje Denkers denkers@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Comoros	Football matches between youth associations to raise public awareness about the importance of social protection in the fight against child labour. <hr/> Comores, va préparer et organiser des événements sportifs entre les associations de jeunes (matches de football) pour sensibiliser l'opinion publique sur l'importance de la protection sociale dans la lutte contre le travail des enfants.	Harivao Rakotoarina hfr@ilo.org	Laurence Dubois dubois@ilo.org
Côte d'Ivoire	World Day activities will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a debate on national TV "Child labour in Côte d'Ivoire: The real picture"; • training for women's groups on the management of cooperatives and of incomes generated; • awarding of grants by the Didier Drogba Foundation to the newly formed women's groups; • a concert on 12 June in the framework of the Music against Child Labour Initiative « UN Chœur pour l'abolition du travail des enfants » to raise awareness about child labour (other concerts took place on 4 April in Soubre and 26 April in Abengourou). <hr/> Dans le cadre des festivités de la Journée mondiale contre le travail des enfants, il est prévu: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • l'organisation d'un débat sur le plateau de la télévision nationale et qui aura pour thème : « Le travail des enfants en Côte d'Ivoire : Quelle réalité »; 	Honoré Boua Bi Semien Boua-bi@ilo.org	Alexandre Soho soho@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • l'organisation d'une formation au profit des groupements de femmes sur la gestion des revenus et la gestion coopérative; • la remise par la fondation Didier Drogba de dons à ces nouveaux groupements constitués; • l'organisation d'un concert le 12 juin dans le cadre de l'initiative de la Caravane « UN Chœur pour l'abolition du travail des enfants » pour la sensibilisation sur le travail des enfants (autres concert ont eu lieu le 4 avril à Soubre et le 26 avril à Abengourou).
Chile	Chile will organize a seminar to present the Child Labour National Observatory. <hr/> Para conmemorar el Día mundial de 2014, Chile organizará un seminario para la presentación del Observatorio Nacional sobre Trabajo Infantil.	Patricia Roa roa@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org
Dominican Republic	The Vice-President will participate in a tripartite conference "Economic Vulnerability, Social Protection and Combating child labour: Progress and Challenges in the Dominican Republic". This event will assess progress and what more can be done by the social partners. The aim is reach a voluntary agreement to reaffirm the commitment to eradicate child labour by 2020. There will also be a campaign to raise awareness, including dedicated programmes on the TV channel of the Vice President's Office, Ministry of Labour, Ministry of Women and Copardom, among others. <hr/> La República Dominicana organizará una conferencia de "La vulnerabilidad	Dabeida Agramonte agramonte@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	económica, la protección social y la lucha contra el trabajo infantil: Avances y desafíos en la República Dominicana" con la participación de la vicepresidenta. Este evento tripartito analizará la dirección que el país está tomando y el trabajo que se puede hacer por los diferentes actores sociales. El objetivo es terminar con un acuerdo voluntario para reafirmar el compromiso de erradicar el trabajo infantil para 2020. Esto irá acompañado de una campaña que incluirá programas especiales sobre el tema en la estación de televisión de la Vicepresidencia de la República, Ministerio de Trabajo, Ministerio de la Mujer y Copardom, entre otros.
Ecuador	In Ecuador, each province will develop activities around World Day. At national level, the National Steering Committee has organized a football event: "Score against Child Labour", 12 June, Quito. <hr/> En Ecuador, se desarrollarán actividades alrededor del Día mundial en todas las provincias del país. A nivel nacional, el Comité Directivo Nacional organiza un Campeonato de fútbol "Mete un gol contra el trabajo infantil y ganamos todos", el 12 de junio en Quito.	José Roberto Morales morales@ilo.org Bladimir Chicaiza chicaiza@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org
Egypt	ILO-IPEC, in collaboration with local NGOs, will organize a football tournament and arts competition. ILO Cairo Office will produce a song and music video in Arabic on the theme	Basma Nafacy nafady@ilo.org	Laurence Dubois dubois@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	of "All together against Child Labour" and will create a cartoon character linked to the campaign. The campaign will be promoted through various media and campaign materials will be prepared and distributed.
El Salvador	World Day activities, agreed upon by the National Committee for the Eradication of Child Labour in El Salvador, include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 12 June: press conference to present the most recent data on child labour in El Salvador, organised by the participation of the Ministry of Economy, the National Statistics Institute and the Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare • 12-30 June: talks to raise awareness on child labour in 74 school centres around the country, organised by the Ministry of Education. • 25 June: forum on child labour and social protection for all: the impact of universal social protection coverage, organised by the Technical Secretariat of the Presidency and the National Committee on the Eradication of Child Labour and its worst forms. • 26 June: screening of a documentary "El puertito", directed by children from the 3rd grade class from 3 school centres from metropolitan area of San Salvador, organised by the Government Ministry (Ministerio de Gobernación). • 26-27 June: forum on child labour in agriculture: working on a national agenda. Promoted by the ILO, FAO, the El Salvador Sugar Foundation and the El Salvador Chamber of Agro industry, with the financial support of the World Bank. • Marches against child labour will take place on 12 June in Aguilares, San

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	Francisco Menéndez, San Pedro Masahuat, Sensuntepeque and Tacuba; on 16 June in Apastepeque; on 18 June in Tecoluca; on 19 June in Jiquilisco; and on 20 June in Jujutla. These events will be attended by the Mayor, representatives of the Local Committee on the Rights of Children and Adolescents, the National Council for Childhood and Adolescents (CONNA) representatives, community leaders, teachers and students. <hr/> En El Salvador el Comité Nacional para la Erradicación del Trabajo Infantil (CNETI) realizará las siguientes actividades con motivo del Día mundial contra el trabajo infantil: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 12 de junio: Conferencia de prensa para presentar los últimos datos sobre trabajo infantil en El Salvador, a cargo del Ministerio de Economía, la Dirección General de Estadísticas y Censos de El Salvador y el Ministerio de Trabajo y Previsión Social. • 12-30 de junio: Charlas de sensibilización sobre el fenómeno de trabajo infantil dirigida a alumnos y padres de familia en 74 centros escolares distribuidos a nivel nacional, a cargo del Ministerio de Educación. • 25 de junio: Foro “Trabajo infantil y protección social universal: la incidencia de los programas de protección social universal en el combate al fenómeno del trabajo infantil y sus peores formas”, a cargo de la Secretaría Técnica de la Presidencia, y el CNETI. • 26 de junio: Proyección del documental “El puertito”, dirigido a jóvenes de tercer ciclo de 3 centros escolares de la zona metropolitana de San Salvador, a cargo del Ministerio de Gobernación

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 26-27 de junio: Foro “Trabajo Infantil y agricultura: Labrando una agenda nacional”, promovido por la OIT, FAO, la Fundación del Azúcar de El Salvador y la Cámara de Agroindustria de El Salvador con apoyo financiero del Banco Mundial • Se realizarán marchas contra el trabajo infantil el 12 de junio en Sensuntepeque, Aguilares, Tacuba, San Francisco Menéndez y San Pedro Masahuat; el 16 de junio en Apastepeque; el 18 de junio en Tecoluca; el 19 de junio en Jiquilisco; y el 20 de junio en Jujutla. Para todos estos eventos se contará con la presencia del Alcalde, los representantes del Comité Local de Derechos de la Niñez y Adolescencia, representantes del Consejo nacional de la Niñez y de la Adolescencia (CONNA), líderes comunitarios, docentes y estudiantes.
Ghana	The National Steering Committee is planning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Media Launch - Thursday 5 June at the International Press Center. • Media Discussions on Radio and Television Stations - 1 to 20 June. • Children's Day - Tuesday, 1 June at Ghana National Association of Teachers (GNAT) Hall. • National Policy Forum - Thursday, 12 June at GNAT Hall. • Press launch of the ECOWAS peer review of Ghana. • An official Statement by the Ministry of Employment and Labour Relations on the Floor of Parliament during the Event on 12 June. In addition, there will be activities in IPEC project communities and districts.	Stephen McLelland mcclelland@ilo.org	Alexandre Soho soho@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Guatemala	Guatemala will dedicate 5 June to awareness-raising activities with children. The press, national authorities and 200 schoolchildren affected by child labour will be invited. There will be a small formal ceremony with the Minister of Labour, the ILO and other actors before the football-themed activities begin. Under the coordination of the Ministry, radio announcements, posters and other leaflets about the event will be diffused at national level using local media. <hr/> Para celebrar el Día Mundial de 2014, Guatemala dedicará el día 5 de junio a actividades de sensibilización para niños. Para el efecto se convocarán medios de comunicación y se invitarán a las Autoridades, además se invitarán niños de escuelas (200) en situación de vulnerabilidad frente a la problemática. Se realizará un pequeño acto protocolario antes de dar inicio con el encuentro de fútbol. De parte del Ministerio se están elaborando unos spot radiales y un arte que se utilizarán alusivos al evento y se distribuirá a nivel nacional, para que se transmita a través de medios de comunicación local.	José Villagrán villagran@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org
Haiti	Activities, 12-13 June, will include: drawing competitions, face painting for children, awareness raising activities, sports, music and theatrical events. The event will be opened by the Prime Minister or the Minister of Labour and Social Affairs or the Minister of Youth and representatives of other agencies. <hr/> Pour la Journée mondiale de 2014, Haïti organise une série d'événements	Noortje Denkers denkers@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	du 12 juin au 13 juillet 2015. Les activités comprendront: concours de dessins, peintures faciales pour les enfants, des activités de sensibilisation sur le travail des enfants, des compétitions sportives, des événements musicaux et théâtraux, parmi beaucoup d'autres activités. L'événement sera ouvert par le Premier ministre ou le ministre des affaires sociales et du travail ou le ministre de la Jeunesse et des représentants d'autres organismes.
Honduras	The Minister of Labour will coordinate a tripartite forum with the participation of national authorities, key sectors and the general public to provide information, discuss and reflect on the situation of child labour and social protection for children and adolescents. <hr/> Para el Día Mundial de 2014, bajo la coordinación del Ministerio de Trabajo, un foro tripartito se llevará a cabo con la participación de autoridades nacionales, los sectores clave y la sociedad en general encaminado a proporcionar información, discutir y reflexionar sobre la situación del trabajo infantil y la protección social para niños y adolescentes.	Rosa Corea corea@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org
Italy	World Day events and initiatives include: Rome, Auditorium Parco della Musica, 31 May: an Award Ceremony for the winners of the Ministry of Education's "Music Against Child Labour" competition, followed by a concert by students of the Liceo Musicale Farnesina (high school specializing in music), directed by Paolo Marzocchi. The event will be organized by the ILO, Ministry of Education and the Music	Luigi Cal cal@ilo.org	Jane Colombini colombini@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	Education for Development Association (MED). Rome, 9-12 June: launch of the “Red Card to Child Labour” campaign in Italy. Raise your voice against child labour and join our Thunderclap campaign! https://www.thunderclap.it/projects/11571-red-card-to-child-labour?locale=en. Milan, Palazzina Liberty, 10 June: the Suzuki Orchestra (of more than 120 young musicians) will dedicate a concert to the campaign against child labour. The event will be organized in collaboration with the ILO, the Ministry of Education, the Municipality of Milan, United Cities and Local Governments and MED. Rome, Camera dei Deputati, 11 June: private meeting of the Director of the ILO Rome Office, Luigi Cal, with the Presidente della Camera dei Deputati, Hon Laura Boldrin. Milan, Villa Clerici, 12 June: event organized by MED, the ILO and the Ministry of Education with the participation of schools which participated in the Ministry of Education’s “Music against Child Labour” competition. Parma , cripta della basilica cattedrale, 12 June, performance by the " Paer " Choir of Colomo, directed by Ugo Rolli. Event organized by the Festival dei cori “Adolfo Tanzi” of the Associazione culturale salesiana “San Benedetto.” Pesaro, Chiesa dell’Annunziata, 12 June, concert by the Gioachino Rossini Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Carlo Rossini Tenan. For more information visit the ILO Rome Office website: http://www.ilo.org/rome/attivita/eventi-e-riunioni/WCMS_244803

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Kenya	A workshop will be organized with key stakeholders as part of the numerous build-up events planned to take place to highlight the link between social protection and the elimination of child labour.	Bernard Kiura bkiura@ilo.org	Nadine Osseiran osseiran@ilo.org
Kosovo	A documentary film will be produced about the situation of children involved in hazardous work in Kosovo, the risks and barriers to education they face, and calling for greater attention to the underlying economic and social vulnerabilities that can force families to resort to child labour. The documentary will be broadcast on major national TV channels to raise public awareness. Three workshops with 60 representatives of civil society organizations, youth groups and media will be organized to present the documentary and discuss the need for greater attention to the situation and the needs of children in child labour. The Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare will organize the annual tripartite conference on child labour "Economic Vulnerability, Social Protection and Combating Child Labour: Progress and Challenges ahead". This event will analyze progress made in the implementation of the Action Plan against child labour since the June 2013 and discuss the follow up by the social partners. An article on awareness raising of youth about child labour and their role in the fight against child labour will be published in the June edition of 4U (For You) Magazine - an official monthly publication of KFOR. 80,000 copies are distributed free of charge to students in lower and upper secondary schools.	Lindita Boshtrakaj boshtrakaj@ilo.org	Snezhi Bedalli bedalli@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Kyrgyzstan	Activities planned from 1 –12 June include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On June 1, in coordination with the Ministry of Social development and students, a street flash mob campaign “Extend social protection. End child labour” will take place on a main square in Bishkek. 30 students will do a performance about child labour and a 4 hour information campaign to sensitize the public and the media. • Representatives of the Child Protection Department, Federation of Trade Unions, NGOs, and the media will take part in a ten-day (2-12 June) “caravan” with the slogan “Red Card to Child Labour”, organized in cooperation with the Ministry of Social Development and its sub-offices. The bus will travel through the four main regions in which cotton, tobacco, rice and other crops are cultivated, visiting the cities of: Osh, Jalal-Abad, Karakol and Tokmok. . The “caravan” will be widely aired on national and local TV and radio. • The special correspondent of the “OTRK” national TV channel will take part, commentating on the campaigns in the regions and along the whole route, which will be tracked in daily news programmes on “OTRK”, June 2-12. A series of TV reports will be broadcast by OTRK. • A 30-minute TV programme “The end of child labour: within reach” will be produced and aired between 2-12 June. It will include short commentaries of the best practices and efforts made at national level towards the elimination of child labour directed at policy makers, employers, parents and the public. • High level officials (members of Parliament, and from ministries) will 	Amina Kurbanova kurbanova@ilo.org	Snezhana Bedalli bedalli@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	launch a Red Card to Child Labour campaign during a high level interactive meeting with children in child labour, parents and media.
Lebanon	A theatrical/singing production will be performed on 12 June to raise awareness about the hazards faced by Syrian and Lebanese children in child labour. The production will be presented by 60 children in the Beqaa region where Lebanese and Syrian children are engaged in child labour. The event will be attended by almost 1,000 children at risk or affected by child labour, their families and the community and influential persons including members of Parliament, mayors, and representatives of national and international organizations. This theatre production will then move to the Hermel Area in North Lebanon to be presented to a similar audience.	Ms. Rabeea Jalloul jalloul@ilo.org Hayat Osseiran ohayat@hotmail.com	Snezhi Bedalli bedalli@ilo.org
Madagascar	Madagascar will organize one national and three regional celebrations on the theme of World Day with the participation of well-known national artists: involving carnival and artistic events (songs, skits, theatre, radio talent, puppet shows and neighbourhood events, films on child labour, a TV show and an exhibition). Conferences and a lunch debate on the theme of the World Day will be organized with the social partners in each place of celebration. Different tools will be developed: posters, t-shirts, press releases, banners, red cards, hats.	Ms Hely Fanja Rakotondrainibe rakotondrainibe@ilo.org	Laurence Dubois dubois@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	Pour la célébration de la Journée mondiale contre le travail des enfants, Madagascar organisera une célébration nationale et trois célébrations régionales avec l'organisation d'activités de sensibilisation : carnaval, animations artistiques axées sur le thème de la journée mondiale (chansons, sketches, théâtres, radio-crochet, marionnette) avec la participation d'artistes de renommée nationale, animations de quartiers et projection de films sur le travail des enfants, émission TV, exposition. Des conférences et déjeuner-débat seront organisées dans chaque lieu de célébration avec les partenaires sociaux sur le thème de la journée mondiale. Différentes outils seront élaborés : affiches, tee-shirts, communiqué de presse, banderoles, cartons rouges, casquettes.
Mexico	On 11 June at the ILO Country Office for Mexico and Cuba a press conference will be held to mark the theme of World Day and the actions the country is taking in this area. Participants include the Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare, the Human Development Program "Oportunidades," the ILO and UNICEF. 11 June: Sugarcane agribusinesses in Mexico will present the progress of their Action Plan to make the sugarcane value chain in Mexico child-labour free. 12 June: The Labour and Social Welfare Secretariat (Ministry of Labour) will present the results of the 2013 Child Labour Module and make other announcements regarding the strategic actions the Government is taking to	Victoria Cruz IPEC_MEX@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	prevent and eliminate child labour in Mexico. Forums, marches and public mobilization activities will take place in most States of the Republic during the weeks of 9 and 16 June. <hr/> El 11 de junio se llevará cabo una Conferencia de Prensa en la Oficina de Países de la OIT para México y Cuba para presentar la campaña de 2014 y las acciones que está realizando el país en esta materia. Participarán: Secretaría del Trabajo y Previsión Social, Programa de Desarrollo Humano Oportunidades, OIT y UNICEF. 11 de junio de 2014: Agroindustria de la Caña de Azúcar de México presentará los avances de su Plan de Acción para hacer de la cadena de valor de la agroindustria de la caña de azúcar en México un sector libre de trabajo infantil. 12 de junio : La Secretaría del Trabajo y Previsión Social presentará los resultados del Módulo de Trabajo Infantil 2013 y realizará varios otros anuncios sobre acciones estratégicas que el Gobierno de la República está realizando para prevenir y eliminar el trabajo infantil en México. Durante las semanas del 9 y el 16 de junio de 2014, se están organizando foros, marchas y actividades públicas de movilización en la mayoría de los Estados de la República para conmemorar el Día Mundial.

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Mongolia	A football match among children will be held with guest players including Ministers and other famous figures. Children will have a face-to-face discussion with the guest players during breaks between two games. The football match will be broadcast on national television. The National Authority for Children will hold a press conference on World Day.	Bolormaa Purevsuren bpurevsuren@ilo.org	Bharati Pflug pflug@ilo.org
Myanmar	The first commemoration of World Day Against Child Labour in Myanmar will involve three simultaneous celebrations, one national and two area-based events. The main celebration will be held in the country's capital, Nay Pyi Taw. It is a back-to-back event starting with a Seminar on Child Labour and Social Protection on June 11 followed by the WDA CL event and press conference on June 12. Statements from ILO and its tripartite constituents will be delivered. The Red Card Campaign in Myanmar will also be launched during the World Day on June 12. On 12 June, two events will take place in Mandalay and Yangon organized primarily in partnership with Care International and also with other international NGOs. 250 participants from different sectors are expected to attend the Mandalay celebration on the World Day theme "Extend social protection, combat child labour". Winners of the Children's Arts Competition will be awarded; there will be performances by a famous band in Myanmar; a speech will be delivered by an artist-child labour advocate. In Yangon, an infant's workshop will be held with 40 children and 40 parents.	Selim Benaissa benaissa@ilo.org	Sophie De Coninck deconinck@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Nicaragua	Three main activities are planned. On 3 June there will be a day of activities in Managua organized by the Minister of the Family, the Minister of Labour and Education, employers, trade unions and NGOs. Three local forums will take place in Managua, Chinandega and Jalapa (organized by the ILO, NGOs and the Ministry of Labour). There will be a meeting in the National Assembly on child labour laws (date to be determined). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 3 June: Launch the World Day 2014. • 25 June: Closing ceremony of the first “I learn” programme of Care International in the context of World Day. • 24 June: Forum on hazardous child labour in the Department of Managua. • 26 June: Forum on hazardous child labour in the Department of Chinandega. • 27 June: Forum on hazardous child labour in the Department of Jalapa. <hr/> Para celebrar el Día Mundial, Nicaragua tiene previsto tres actividades diferentes. Habrá un día de actividades en Managua el 3 de junio, organizado por el ministro de la familia, el ministro del trabajo y la educación, los empleadores, los trabajadores y las organizaciones no gubernamentales. Tres foros locales también tendrán lugar en Managua, Chinandega y Jalapa (organizado por la OIT, y organizaciones no gubernamentales y el Ministerio de Trabajo). Por otra parte, ha de haber una reunión en la Asamblea Nacional sobre leyes de trabajo infantil (fecha por determinar).	Noortje Denkers denkers@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Junio 3: Lanzamiento de la Jornada. • Junio 25: Acto de cierre del Programa Primero Aprendo de Care Internacional, en el contexto del Da Mundial contra el Trabajo Infantil. • Junio 24: Foro sobre Trabajo Infantil Peligroso en el Departamento de Managua. • Junio 26: Foro sobre trabajo infantil peligroso en el Departamento de Chinandega. • Junio 27: Foro sobre trabajo infantil peligroso en el Departamento de Jalapa.
Nigeria	11 - 13 June: The Federal Ministry of Labour in collaboration with British America Tobacco will hold a three day sensitization programme at Okeogun in Oyo state. On 16 June they also plan to have a one day awareness-raising rally at Egbeda in Oyo State.	Pius Udo udo@ilo.org	Alexandre Soho soho@ilo.org
Nepal	Nepal will announce the launch of the child labour free district initiative of Bhaktapur. An awareness raising rally and march will be organized in Bhaktapur city, which will turn into a mass meeting with political leaders, policy makers, district and national authorities and civil society leaders. Radio and TV programmes will be aired through various radio stations and local FM stations during the week of the 12 June 2014. This will be complemented by publications in print media of opinion editorials and articles focusing on the worst forms of child labour and the rights of children.	k-hada2011@yahoo.com Prakash Sharma prakash@ilo.org	Sherin Khan khan@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Panama	Panama will develop several activities throughout June as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 27 May- 30 June: “Red Card to Child Labour” campaign by the National Council of Private Enterprise (CONEP) with football matches and awareness raising activities including CSE (employers’ organization). • 6-13 June: murals, fireworks, readings on child rights and the elimination of child labour in School Centers. • 8 June: march against child labour. • 9-10 June: projection of short-films on child labour at the Panama University Cinema. • 11 June: progress on the prevention and eradication of child labour in Panama. ILO-Casa Esperanza. • 11-14 June: murals, training and “Human Chain” against child labour on social security agencies’ facilities. • 12 June: dissemination of information on child labour. • 25 June: launch of the Social Footprint for Responsible Enterprises. • 25 June: linking child labor to social protection policies and presenting the analysis of the 2012 Survey on child labour in Panama. <hr/> En Panamá se desarrollarán las siguientes actividades: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 27 de mayo - 30 de junio: actividades de sensibilización y eventos futbolísticos en el marco de la campaña “Tarjeta roja al trabajo infantil”, con la participación del Consejo Nacional de la Empresa Privada (CONEP) y la organización de empleadores CSE. • 6-13 de junio: pinturas murales, fuegos artificiales, lecturas en centros 	José Roberto Morales morales@ilo.org Briseida Barrantes Serrano barrantes@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	escolares sobre los derechos de los niños y el trabajo infantil. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 8 de junio: marcha contra el trabajo infantil. • 9-10 de junio: proyección de cortos sobre trabajo infantil en la sala de cine de la Universidad de Panamá. • 11 de junio: Charla sobre los avances en la prevención y eliminación del trabajo infantil en Panamá, organizada por Casa Esperanza y la OIT. • 11-14 de junio: pinturas murales, talleres de sensibilización y una “Cadena humana” contra el trabajo infantil en las instalaciones de los organismos de la seguridad social. • 12 de junio: difusión de información sobre el trabajo infantil. • 25 de junio: lanzamiento de la etiqueta “Huella social para empresas responsables”. • 25 de junio: Charla sobre los vínculos entre el trabajo infantil y las políticas de protección social y análisis de la Encuesta sobre trabajo infantil de Panamá de 2012.
Peru	The ILO Regional Office will organize a series of events: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • June 1: Launch of the campaign "Extend Social Protection, End Child Labour" and Red Card to Child Labour, as well as the Regional Information System on Child Labour (SIRTI). During June and July news articles linked to World Day will be issued. • June 2: Launch of a Virtual Application as football game. Users can create a strategy with each player representing an element of social protection to defeat the opposing team representing obstacles to the elimination of child labour (indifference, lack of commitment etc.). 	Elena Montobbio montobbio@ilo.org María Olave olave@ilo.org	Lars Johansen johansen@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • June 9: News articles to promote good practices in combating child labour. • June 10: News about virtual event with participation of students. Organized by Fundación Telefónica. • June 11: News about an event organized by the ILO under the umbrella of the Red Card to Child Labour Campaign. • June 12: News about all events in the region on World Day 2014. • June 13: News about the Red Card to Child Labour campaign in the inaugural event of the World Cup in Brazil. • July 22 : Virtual seminar on child labour and social protection, with the participation of leading specialists from the ILO and authorities in the region in coordination with Fundación Telefónica Peru and Red LACTI (Latin American Network Against Child Labour regional virtual platform). <hr/> Para el Día mundial la Oficina Regional de la OIT organizará una serie de eventos: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1 de junio: Lanzamiento de Identidad Visual y contenidos de la campaña “Ampliemos la Protección Social eliminemos el Trabajo Infantil!” y Tarjeta Roja al trabajo infantil, en el Sistema de Información Regional sobre Trabajo Infantil (SIRTI). Durante el mes de junio y julio se difundirán noticias sobre el Día mundial contra el Trabajo Infantil. • 2 de junio: Lanzamiento de aplicación virtual de un juego de futbol que permite al usuario armar una estrategia futbolística contando con jugadores que representan cada criterio de la Protección Social para

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	vencer al equipo contrario que representa los obstáculos para eliminar el trabajo infantil: la indiferencia, falta de compromiso etc. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 9 de junio: Noticias sobre Buenas Prácticas del Programa de Atención Redoblada y Sistematización de Buenas Prácticas en la lucha contra el TI. • 10 de junio: Noticia sobre evento virtual con participación de alumnado. Organizado por Fundación Telefónica. • 11 de junio: Noticia sobre evento organizado por OIT en el marco de la campaña Tarjeta Roja al Trabajo Infantil. • 12 de junio: Noticia sobre todos los eventos de la región sobre Día Mundial 2014. • 13 de junio: Noticia sobre la campaña Tarjeta Roja al Trabajo Infantil en el evento inaugural del mundial de futbol en Brasil. • 22 de Julio: Seminario Virtual sobre Protección Social y Trabajo Infantil, con la participación de destacados especialistas de la OIT y autoridades de la región en coordinación con Fundación Telefónica Perú y Red LACTI (Red Latinoamericana contra el Trabajo Infantil (Red LACTI) Plataforma virtual regional).
Samoa	The Samoa Chamber of Commerce in collaboration with other private sector organizations and social partners will conduct a training workshop and a Private Sector Forum to sensitize employers about child labour.	Osana Liki policyanalyst@samoa-chamber.ws Marie Jane Fatiaki fatiaki@ilo.org	Bharati Pflug pflug@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
South Africa	15 May, Durban, KwaZulu Natal Philharmonic Orchestra, opening concert of the Winter season dedicated to the Music Against Child Labour Initiative.	Sue Murray smurray@kznphil.org.za	Simon Steyne steyne@ilo.org
Swaziland	Information on action taken to combat child labour and on the theme of the World Day will be shared with local media.	Tshepo Kau kau@ilo.org	Nadine Osseiran Osseiran@ilo.org
Spain	14 June: within the framework of the Music Against Child Labour Initiative, and organized in collaboration between the ILO Madrid Office, the orchestras, Pilar Jurado (co-founder of the Music Initiative) and the Spanish musicians' union , AMPOS, three orchestras will dedicate their concerts to the struggle against child labour: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Orquesta Sinfónica de Euskadi in Bilbao. • Orquesta Sinfónica de Tenerife. • Orquesta Ciudad de Granada with Pilar Jurado who will premiere a new composition dedicated to the Music Initiative. <hr/> El 14 de junio, en el marco de la Iniciativa “La música contra el trabajo infantil” y con la organización conjunta de la Oficina de la OIT en Madrid, las orquestas, Pilar Jurado (co-fundadora de la Iniciativa “La música”) y la Asociación de Músicos Profesionales de Orquestas Sinfónicas de España (AMPOS), tres orquestas van a dedicar sus conciertos a la lucha contra el trabajo infantil: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Orquesta Sinfónica de Euskadi in Bilbao. • Orquesta Sinfónica de Tenerife. • Orquesta Ciudad de Granada acompañando a Pilar Jurado, quien interpretará un tema inédito dedicado a la Iniciativa “La música”. 	Joaquin Nieto Sainz nieto@ilo.org	Jane Colombini colombini@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Sri Lanka	Sri Lanka will declare Kegalle as the second district to be a Child Labour Free Zone. To extend social protection to vulnerable girls and boys and/or their families, Ratnapura will launch the first step of a project to assess the vulnerability of girls and boys using benchmarks developed for the district.	Dabeida Agramonte agramonte@ilo.org Shyama Salgado shyama@ilo.org	Bharati Pflug pflug@ilo.org
Switzerland	10 June at the Palais des Nations in Geneva: 23rd Meeting of the IPEC International Steering Committee. The discussion will be opened by Mr. Guy Ryder, ILO Director-General, followed by presentations of the IPEC Implementation Report “Action against child labour 2012-2013” by Ms Corinne Vargha, Branch Chief, Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work; highlights from the World Social Protection Report 2014-2015, presented by Ms Christina Behrendt, Social Policy Specialist, ILO Social Protection Department; and a report of the III Global Child Labour Conference by Ms Paul Montagner, Government of Brazil. Class choir and orchestra, Gabriel Péri school, Gardanne (France), will perform a new song “La Musique”, dedicated to the Music against Child Labour Initiative.	/	Simon Steyne steyne@ilo.org
Tanzania	12 June officiated by the Deputy Minister for Labour and Employment, the Ministry of Labour, the social partners, NGOs and the ILO office will organize World Day activities at national level in Tanga region: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • processions; • football matches; 	Magnus Minja minja@ilo.org	Nadine Osseiran osseiran@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • children’s Art competition; • drama, poems, local dance (with special child labour messages); • school debates on child labour; • child labour testimonies; • launching of the Red card to child labour and; • discussion forum on this year's theme - Social protection and child labour.
Tajikistan	The main World Day activities will be organized from 1 May – 30 June: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a tripartite-plus roundtable discussions with 50 participants from the Coordination Council on the Elimination of Child Labour and other participants from governmental and non-governmental organizations; • SMS with the World Day slogan “Extend social protection, combat child labour” will be sent out to 130 000 mobile telephone subscribers; • the World Day poster (in Russian and English) will be featured on the main page of the news agency Asia Plus for seven days (06-12 June) - www.news.tj; • eight articles will be published in five newspapers on the World Way theme and its consequences and IPEC activities in Tajikistan; • a week-long “Red Card to child labour” campaign will be launched from 12-18 June in the framework of the Child Labour Monitoring System programmes with 180 children who are part of the programmes, 50 members of the Child Labour Monitoring Committees and the 40 members of the Coordination Council on the Elimination of Child Labour. 	Muhayo Khosabekova khosabekva@ilo.org	Snezhana Bedalli bedalli@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
Timor Leste	SEPFPOPE (Secretary of State for Vocational Training and Employment Policy, Labour Inspection, and the National Commission Against Child Labour), in coordination with employers' and workers' representatives, IGT and CNTI, will organize a public and media event to raise awareness about child labour. CNTI will also formally announce its role in combating child labour and will engage in the ILO campaign "Show the red card to child labour".	Eliana Pereira pereira@ilo.org	Bharati Pflug pflug@ilo.org
Togo	Information and awareness raising sessions will be organized in five areas (Dapaong, Kara, Sokodé, Atakpamé, Tsévié et Lomé) and a working session of the National Committee will be held to revise the National Action Plan against child labour. An information and awareness meeting with the National Steering Committee and the National Committee for the Promotion of Social Protection on 12 June will provide the opportunity to officially launch the World Day activities. It will be accompanied by extensive media coverage by public and private media, radio, print and television. <hr/> Pour célébrer la Journée mondiale, le Togo organisera des séances de sensibilisation dans cinq domaines du Togo (Dapaong, Kara, Sokodé, Atakpamé, Tsévié et Lomé) et une séance de travail du Comité national pour réviser le document du Plan d'action national de lutte contre le travail des enfants. La réunion d'information et de sensibilisation CDN (Comité Directeur National) et CNPPS (Comité Nationale pour la Promotion de la Protection	Essodina M. Abalo abalo@ilo.org	Alexandre Soho soho@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	Sociale) le 12 juin, 2014 sera l'occasion de lancer officiellement les activités de la JMCTE 2014. Elle sera accompagnée par une vaste couverture médiatique par les médias publics et privés, radio, presse écrite et télévision.
Tunisia	A training workshop for labour inspectors and social workers will be held to encourage their further involvement in the implementation of the National Action Plan against child labour (2013-2014), launched on May 6. <hr/> En Tunisie, la Journée mondiale de lutte contre le travail des enfants sera célébrée par l'organisation d'un atelier de formation au profit des inspecteurs du travail et des travailleurs sociaux afin de les impliquer davantage dans la réalisation et concrétisation du plan d'action national de lutte contre le travail des enfants (2013-2014) qui a été lancé le 6 mai dernier.	Chokri OUALI chokri.ouali@gnet.tn	Laurence Dubois dubois@ilo.org
Uganda	Various events will be organized, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 10th June, 2014; National media/press conference at the Ministry of Gender, Labour and Social Development, with a statement by the Minister for. Information. Materials on child labour will be disseminated. • Film shows will be conducted in selected schools and community settings. • 11 June: Workshop focusing on World Day for members of the Stop Child Labour Partners Forum. Information and locally produced materials on World Day will be disseminated. 	Jackie Banya banya@ilo.org	Patrick Quinn Quinn@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 9- 13 June: The Education International “One hour against child labour” campaign will be publicized by the Uganda National Teacher’s Union • 12 June: Public marches led by the children’s brass band. • Guest speaker will launch the red card campaign at a children’s football gala.
Viet Nam	The Government will organize a National Campaign on the theme “Prevention and protection of children from violence, abuse and exploitation” during the month of June. 12 June: The ILO will organize talk shows with the ILO tripartite constituents on “Social protection and the fight against child labour” on the 60 minute Vietnamese TV channel 1 programme: the Dialogue Programme with two repeated airings during the same week. 12 June: A 20-minute dialogue between ILO tripartite constituents on the same will be broadcast on the Social and Political programme of the Voice of Vietnam Radio (with two repeated airings during the same week).	Oanh, Nguyen Mai oanh@ilo.org	Bharati Pflug pflug@ilo.org
Yemen	World Day activities will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children’s Caravan - “Children say YES to Social Protection! No to Hazardous Work!” On 11 June, in Khirbat Afiq, Mgrib Ans District at Dhamar Governorate, a group of children (45) who work on mining sites, in extracting garnet, will, together with parents, visit the different mining sites to raise awareness of the hazards and risks involved in this type of work. They will also pay several visits to neighbouring schools, civil society organizations and the local authorities to remind them about the importance of education and the	Ali Dehaq dehaq@ilo.org	Snezhi Bedalli bedalli@ilo.org

WHERE	EVENTS/ACTIVITIES (provisional list)	LOCAL CONTACT	HQ CONTACT
	need to fight child labour. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Street campaign and National Workshop in Dhamar City “No child labour in hazardous work!” On 12 June, a group of 45 children will distribute T-shirts and caps with the “No child labour in hazardous work!” inscription to institutions with child protection responsibilities and to the general public.
Zimbabwe	To mark the World Day, articles will be published in print media on the role of social protection in the fight against child labour.	Maria Mutandwa mutandwa@ilo.org	Nadine Osseiran osseiran@ilo.org

www.ilo.org/childlabour